1. Al-Falah Academy is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such legal purposes as the making of distributions to organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue code (or the corresponding section of any further Federal tax code.)
2. The purpose for which this CORPORATION is organized is to operate a school:
 - a. Based on the principles of the Quran and Sunnah, that nurtures, cultivates and fosters creative and critical thinking skills, academic excellence and strong moral values, to develop in each student a positive identity as a Muslim, who is prepared intellectually, socially, emotionally and physically for the betterment of family, community and humanity.
 - b. To offer academic excellence so that students can be prepared to take active and productive roles in the societies in which they live.
 - c. To enable students to enhance their understanding of the Arabic language and Islam in accordance with Ahlas Sunnah wal Jama’ah.
3. The CORPORATION shall not be formed for pecuniary profit or financial gain, and no part of the assets, income or profit of the CORPORATION is distributable to, or ensures to the benefit of, its Trustees or officers.
4. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the CORPORATION shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section (501) (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or any corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws) and by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of such Code (or any corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws).
5. Such purposes are to be carried out through any and all lawful activities, including others not specifically stated above, but permissible for use by non-profit corporations in furtherance of their interests.

Article C. POLICIES

The following are the basic policies of the Corporation:

1. The CORPORATION shall be non-profit, nonpolitical, and nonpartisan.
2. The name of the CORPORATION or the name of any officers or Trustees in their official capacities shall not be used in any connection with a commercial concern or with any partisan interest or for any purposes not appropriately related to the promotion of the objectives of the CORPORATION.
3. This CORPORATION may collaborate with other legal organizations concerned with the purposes for which this CORPORATION is formed. Al-Falah Academy will maintain a cordial relationship and operate in harmony with other mosques and Islamic institutions in the greater Atlanta area and other areas in North America.
4. Al-Falah Academy admits students of any race, color, and national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to its students. Al-Falah Academy does not discriminate in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school administered programs.
5. Al-Falah Academy is not affiliated with any local, national or international organization or institution.

Article D. MEMBERSHIP

The CORPORATION will be a nonmembership corporation.

Article E. GOVERNANCE

These Bylaws and its Board of Trustees shall govern Al-Falah Academy.

Article F. BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section F.1. PURPOSE

Board of Trustees, hereon also referred as Board, shall be the body that shall govern and hold the Al-Falah Academy in trust in the name of Allah (swt). The Board of Trustees shall:

1. Provide long-term strategic direction.
2. Ensure financial and legal viability.
3. Maintain and respect the confidentiality with regards to the applications and the staff past and current.
4. The Board shall be responsible to the community for providing the best school and environment for the children.
5. Be held legally and morally accountable to ensure the vision and goals of the school, are followed by all the individuals involved in the school.
6. Select administration and create leadership depth.

7. Recruit and staff the school, including entering into any contracts with staff. The board shall also be final authority on dismissal of any staff.
8. In the event of absence or gap in school leadership, the board will assume this role until the gap is filled.
9. Set policies that are implemented by administration as processes and procedures.
10. Set annual goals with administration, aligned with the strategic plan.
11. In the initial years, as needed, volunteer in the school as parents and support the administration of the school as parents (and not as board members).

Section F.2. POWERS

The business and affairs of the School shall be managed, and all powers shall be exercised, by or under the direction of the Board. Without prejudice to these general powers, and subject to the same limitations, the Board shall have the power to:

1. Control and manage the property, affairs, and funds of the CORPORATION.
2. Select and remove all officers, agents and employees of the Corporation with these by-laws, and with the Articles of Incorporation; and prescribe any powers and duties for them that are consistent with corporate law and with these By-laws.
3. Empower the School Principal to act as the executive officer of daily operations in order to conduct the affairs and business of the School.

Section F.3. LIMITATIONS

The limitations on powers of the Board are subject to the Articles of Incorporation and these By-laws.

Section F.4. COMPOSITION

1. The initial five signatories of these by-laws shall form the Board of Trustees for the first three school years of Al-Falah Academy. If any vacancy is created due to any of these Trustees leaving the Board of Trustees, then the rest of the Trustees will use the process defined in Section F.6 for Vacancies.
2. The initial Board of Trustees will serve two terms of three years and will then stagger off by drawing a name to retire or by a Board of Trustees member volunteering to leave the Board of Trustees. This is dependent on the position being filled with a qualified new member as per Election Process defined in Section F.5.
3. The membership to the Board of Trustees will continue to be renewed for additional terms of 3 years until a qualified successor is selected as per the Election Process defined in Section F.5

Section F.5. ELECTION PROCESS:

The Board of Trustees shall follow the below process in electing and filling any vacancy in the Board of Trustees:

1. The Board of Trustees shall seek nomination from the community, which includes the Founder's body, Advisory body, parents and others.
2. The nominated member must be:
 - a. Accept and be committed to the vision, goals and structure of Al-Falah Academy.

- b. Accept the principles and policies of Al-Falah Academy as defined at the time of nomination.
 - c. Be willing to serve as a Trustee of Al-Falah Academy and perform all the duties as defined in these by-laws.
 - d. Known to be of good character and integrity by the person offering the name into nomination.
3. The Board of Trustees, by simple majority elects the member to the Board of Trustees. The Trustee, who is being replaced, cannot participate in the election process on his/her own nomination.
 4. Each Board Member is eligible for nomination and re-election for only two consecutive terms or until a qualified successor is elected as per this section.
 5. Each Board Member shall be elected for a term of 3 years or until a qualified successor is elected as per this section.
 6. Each Board Member, including a member elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office until expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor is elected.

Section F.6. VACANCIES

Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Trustees and any Trusteeship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of Trustees may be filled using the Election Process defined in Section F.5. A Trustee elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office and until his successor is elected and qualified. Service of less than half a term in a vacant position shall not count as a term in office for purpose of reelection to two consecutive terms.

A vacancy or vacancies on the Board of Trustees shall occur in the event of:

1. The death or resignation of any Trustee; or
2. Action by Board of Trustees as per Removal of Trustees as defined in Section F.7.

Section F.7. REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES

Board of Trustees may remove a Trustee in the event of:

1. The declaration by resolution of the board of a vacancy in the office of a Trustee who has been convicted of a felony, declared of unsound mind by a court order, or found by final order or judgment of any court to have breached a duty under the Un-annotated Georgia Code, Chapter 14-3 Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code;
2. The vote by a three-fourths majority of all remaining Board members, to remove the Trustee(s) provided that such action is taken at a meeting of the Board called expressly for that purpose; This may also be brought against a Trustee for violation of Islamic norms or for bringing the corporation into disrepute.

Section F.8. RESIGNATIONS

Except as otherwise required by law, any Trustee of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board or to the President or to the Secretary of the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, no acceptance of such resignation shall be necessary to make it effective. As a principle, Trustees are expected to give 60 day notice for resignation.

Section F.9. QUOROM

A majority of the number of Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. No proxy vote shall be allowed. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of incorporation or these By-laws, the act of a majority of the Trustees present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board. All Ex-Officio members of the Board will not be considered while constituting the quorum.

Section F.10. MEETINGS

Meetings of the Board of Trustees, regular or special, may be held at such place within or without the state of Georgia, and upon such notice as may be prescribed by resolution of the Board of Trustees. A Trustee's attendance at any meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting, excepting such attendance at a meeting by the Trustee for the purpose of objecting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Trustees need be specified in the notice or waiver of such meeting. Board meeting shall be conducted using Roberts's rules of procedure.

1. Annual Meetings The Board of Trustees shall meet annually on or at such time as may be designated by the Board.
2. Special Meetings. The Board of Trustees shall meet for special meetings when called by a majority of the Board upon written request submitted to the president of the Board. The President of the Board may call a special meeting on his/her own authority.
3. Other Regular Meetings Other regular meetings of the Board shall be held once a month. The Board secretary shall notify all Board members of the date, time and place of such meetings.

Section F.11. INFORMAL ACTION BY TRUSTEES

Meetings by Conference Telephone: Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if all Trustees consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the Trustees shall be filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board.

Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, any or all Trustees may participate in a meeting of the board or a committee of the board by means of conference telephone or by any means of communications by which all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear one another, and such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section F.12. VOTING

Each member of the Board shall have one vote upon all matters presented to the Board of Trustees. In case of a tie, the President of the Board may cast a tie-breaking vote or at her/his discretion table the tied resolution. Ex-officio Board members do not have voting rights.

Section F.13. ORDER OF BUSINESS

The order of business at all meetings of the board shall be as follows

1. Roll Call
2. Approval of the Minutes of the preceding meeting(s)

3. Reports of Committees (if applicable)
4. Old and Unfinished Business (if applicable)
5. New Business
